

Breathing Life into the One Plan Everyone Needs.

With her vibrant personality and down-to-earth approach, attorney Susan A. Muscari is quickly changing perceptions of how people view estate planning.

“My goal is to dispel the myth that estate planning is a complex, maybe even depressing experience best reserved for seniors or those who are seriously ill,” Susan says. “The fact is estate planning is one of today’s essential components to a smart plan for life.”

As a frequent speaker and renowned expert in all areas of estate planning, Susan works with adults of all age groups to help them plan smarter for the future.

Significant changes during the course of life—from purchasing a new home to having children to owning a business—often remind us of the need to protect and secure all that we hold dear. No matter what your age, Susan will show you why you’re never too young—or too seasoned—to ensure that your final wishes are properly, legally, and sensitively carried out.

About Susan A. Muscari

Susan A. Muscari earned her law degree in 1991 from The University of Tulsa. The practice of law is actually her second career after years of upper management positions in the corporate world. Entering law school as a more mature student, Susan brought with her a real-world experience that shaped her desires to guide people with compassion and sensitivity.

Throughout Susan's legal career, she has remained in private practice, which gives her the opportunity to work more closely and personally with her clients. Operating a full-service law firm also enables Susan to assist her clients with other family matters if they arise.

Originally from Michigan, Susan has called Oklahoma home for more than 25 years. She is a member of the Tulsa County Bar Association, Oklahoma Bar Association, the American Bar Association and the Oklahoma Business Ethics Consortium.

TESTIMONIALS

"Prior to my wife's death, we thought a simple will was all that was needed. Then, I was encouraged to think about having a living trust drawn up. I worried and fretted for months thinking it was going to be a very complicated ordeal. After attending a workshop with attorney Susan A. Muscari and meeting with her a few days later, I was amazed at how easy she made the planning of my estate. It has been a godsend to have her help. I only wish I had been able to meet her months ago as she made everything so easy to understand."

"Susan is a woman of good character, who is astute, compassionate and supportive of her clients. She has supported me legally through life-altering events and has helped me prepare for the day when I am called to rest. Susan has become family and is virtually irreplaceable to me!"

--Latrice C. Hankins

"We know that no two families' circumstances are the same, and Susan really took the time to find out what was important to us in our family situation. In between our meetings while creating a trust, we would start to get overwhelmed trying to think of all of the details. As soon as we met with Susan, she would immediately explain things in a way we could relate to and put our minds at ease. We would gladly recommend her for anyone's family estate planning needs."
